PRESS RELEASE

Second Arrest Made in Domino's Robbery

December 9, 2013

At approximately 12:30 am today, the West Lafayette Domino's located at 1522 Win Hentschel Blvd. was robbed by two armed subjects. The suspects were armed with brass knuckles and a machete at the time of the robbery. An undisclosed amount of cash was taken and nobody was harmed during the robbery.

West Lafayette Officers worked throughout the day speaking with witnesses and collecting evidence. Officers were able to identify one of the subjects through video surveillance as Brandon A. Terry (18 years of age). Terry was located at his residence off of Klondike Rd. and taken into custody without incident. Terry was booked into the Tippecanoe County Jail for Robbery, which is a B Felony due to possessing a deadly weapon during the act. A portion of the money stolen during the robbery was recovered from Terry.

Early this morning, West Lafayette Officers located the second suspect, Chase JW Freeman, Age 20, hiding in an apartment attic in West Lafayette. Freeman was taken into custody without incident for Robbery and booked into the Tippecanoe County Jail. No additional money was recovered, but the machete used during the robbery was recovered from the apartment where Freeman was located. There are no additional suspects in this Armed Robbery case.
